The Supervisor/Principal

Dear Sir/Madam,

1979 has been designated as the Year of the Child. Children, as future masters of the world, have the right to be brought up properly. They need to learn of their own rights and to have these rights respected by the adult world. The Year of the Child has thus the objective of bringing all nations to their awareness of the young generation.

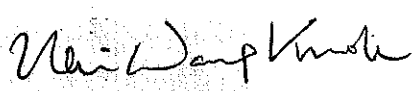

In response to this call, the religious bodies here in Hong Kong are now launching a joint project in the form of a Poster Design Contest, for children studying in schools under their sponsorship. Full details are given in the leaflet attached to this letter.

In order to make this project a more fruitful one, it is suggested that your staff members first brief their pupils on the theme and that each child take part in the contest held within the school during the regular art lessons.

Your support will be most highly appreciated.

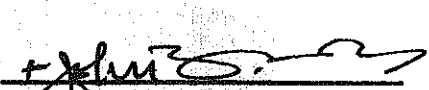

Yours faithfully,
