The Postmaster General,
General Post Office,
Connaught Place,
Hong Kong.

Dear Sir,

We are aware that the general public has responded well to the various campaigns and activities organized for the International Year of the Child.

We, the undersigned, at a gathering held last month, were of the opinion that it would be befitting if something more could be done increase public awareness of this special year.

One of the projects we think would be most appropriate to promote such an awareness would be the issuing of a series of postal stamps.

We are therefore writing to you to request that a series of new postal stamps be designed and issued to commemorate the IYC. In the series, various aspects of child care could, for example, be illustrated. We are sure that this will not merely promote the good of the children, but will also be of high interest to philatelists.

Your consideration of this matter will be very much appreciated.

Yours faithfully,

Rev. Kok Kwong &
Mr. Wong Wan Tin
The President &
Vice President,
